...and the one on our side, even when there is talk of Jim's absence you must simply imply that he is east somewhere. You will know how to meet such inquiries better than we women. Henderson will be only too glad. You should have seen the wretch when I held out my hand to him and told him to dance with me. He came, white and shuffling. We have nothing to fear from Henderson. Alida has no money to go away with. She and I must stay here and make a beginning for the children, and, Peter, we want you to help us."

He had no voice to answer her brave words for a minute, and then his sentences came uncertain and halting. "You must think me a poor sort of friend, Judith, one who has been blind till the eleventh hour and is then found wanting. I feel so guilty to you, to your brother's wife, to that little child who put out his arms so trustfully to me that night, but I never imagined that things would come to such a pass as this. The smaller cattle outfits have been doing a good deal of blustering, but the more conservative element supposed that they had them in check and did not for a moment think that they would take the law into their own hands. Believe me, this lawlessness has been in the face of every influence that could be brought to bear, and it shall not go unpunished."

She spoke to him from the darkness as the spirit of grief might speak. "An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth; that is the justice of the plains. But, Peter, it is a but poor justice. What's done is done, and fresh violence will not give back Alida her husband nor the little ones their father. What we need is friends, one or two loyal souls who, though knowing the hideous truth of this thing, will stand by us in our pitiful falsehood. I have told no one, nor shall I, but you and—Peter, you must not laugh at your fellow conspirator—Leander."

He took her hands in his and pressed them. Big hands they were, and hardened by many a homely task, but withal tender and with the healing quality of womanliness in the touch of their warm, supple fingers. But tonight she did not seem to be conscious of his presence. The woman in her was dead of grief. The white spirit in her place, that plotted and planned that Jim's children and Jim's wife might not from henceforth walk in the shadow of the gallows, was beyond the prompting of the flesh. And again she spoke to him in the same faraway voice, with the same faraway look in her eyes.

"You must know, Peter, that Leander is at heart of the salt of the earth. I told him about it all, and he asked to be given the commission to deal with the men. He has risen to his post magnificently. I heard him swear the wretches to secrecy, hint to them that he had a great story to tell them. They were frightened and listened. And the poor little man that we have so despised told them convincingly how Jim had made good his escape. Even Henderson half believes we saved him."

Peter hoped that she would accuse him of his half heartedness indirectly if not openly. It would have made his conscience more comfortable, and his conscience troubled him sorely tonight. It was that fatal habit of pro-good that has come to you, Peter. Perhaps Miss Colebrooke told you of the day I met her in the wood, the day of the wolf hunt. She was so beautiful, I understood."

"Judith, I hardly know how to say what I am going to. I feel that I have been such a bad friend to you, but you must hear me patiently. Together, if you are willing, after knowing all of me that you do, we must look after your brother's children. That night in the little house in the valley, when the little chap came to me, don't you remember, there was something fine and fearless in the way he did it. 'You may belong to the cattle side of the argument,' he seemed to say, 'but I trust you.' Now, Judith dear, that boy's faith in me is not going to be shaken. We must look after them together. It is a very little thing you have asked of me, my dearest, but a very big one that I am asking of you. Do you understand, my Judith, it is you that I want? Don't think of me as I have been, Judith, but as you are going to make me. I want you to give me the right now, this evening, to share all this trouble with you. Do we understand each other, Judith? Is it to be? And will you come back with me now into the room where they are dancing and let me present you to them, to the Wetmores, as my Judith, my betrothed?"

"But, Peter, I don't understand. I—

I thought you and Miss Colebrooke were"—
"That's all over, Judith. I did love her once. Oh, you dear, brave woman, I'm not a hero from any point of view, and you know it! It's but a sorry lover that's making his prayer to you, my dearest. But you won't judge, I know, beloved. You will love me instead?"

Judith turned toward the valley. Her whole being throbbled with a passionate response to the man who stood so humbly before her, but there were duties that came first. Her mind was full of Alida and her children, and her eyes still sought Peter's imploringly.

"You will be a good friend to them, Peter—to Jim's people? I cannot talk to you of anything else tonight. Your heart is big, Peter, but you cannot feel perhaps?"

"Listen, Judith. Whatever friendship and protection I can give your family you may count upon from now till the end of time. I will be theirs as I am yours. I feel your grief, but I want to soothe it too. And if you love me, and I feel, Judith, that you do, you must let them all see tonight, these people who know us both, that we stand together before all the world for better or worse. Think, Judith, and you will see that you owe it to yourself, to me, to all these men, who reverence you as the one woman, the one ideal in their lonely lives."

She could not speak. The moment was too full, the strain had been too great. But she smiled surrender, and Peter caught her tenderly in his arms and kissed her once. His Judith she was now, his heroine. Then without another word he drew her arm through his and led her back to the lights, where the dancers still held high carnival.

Judith's half sister, Endora, was making a pretty quarrel by persistently forgetting the order in which she had given her dances. The girl was so undeniably happy that Judith dreaded the grim news she must tell her. Endora blushed as she encountered Judith's eye. Her half sister ever offered a check on Endora's exuberant coquetry, with its precipitation of discussions that often ended in bullets. Leander stood on the outermost fringe of Endora's potential partners. He would not have dared to maintain it openly, yet he was sure the pretty minx had promised that dance to him.

"Dance with Leander, dear, and don't let those men begin quarreling. I've something to tell you presently," said Judith.

Texas Tyler stood glowering at them from the doorway. He would not catch Judith's eye as she tried to speak to him. Kitty sat alone for the moment. She had sent the young lieutenant to fetch her a cup of coffee, but as Peter approached with Judith she averted her eyes.

"Kitty, may I present to you my fiancée, Miss Rodney?"

Kitty rose superbly to the situation. She might, indeed, have made the match, she was so overjoyed in the good fortune of her old friend Peter. She made no reference to the woodland meeting. She hoped for the happiness of seeing them in town. And she bade Peter tell the good news to Nannie Wetmore. They would be so glad. Nannie swallowed a grimace and proffered a cousinly hand. She had suspected some such news as this when she saw that things were not going well with Kitty and Peter.

"Better one dance with a good partner than can swing ye than several with a feeble partner that leaves ye to swing your own corners." Judith looked up, smiling. She recognized the characteristic utterance of her old friend, Mrs. Yellett. The matron had sustained a breakdown and arrived in consequence when the dance was half over, but she was philosophical, as always, in the face of misfortune and loudly attested her pleasure in the renowned pedal feats of her partner, Costigan.

Behind came Mary Carmichael, looking brown and happy. From the attitude of the group around Judith and Peter, Mary divined what had happened and came to add her congratulations. Even Mrs. Yellett forgot to choose an axiom as her medium of expression and kissed Judith publicly with affectionate unction. Henderson had effaced himself, and Leander, proud of his triumph and Judith's commendation, sat in a corner and smiled contentedly. Ignorant of the drama to which they had played chorus, the dancers still riotously swung one another up and down the length of the room, and from the little brown fiddles came the gay music of Judith's betrothal.

THE END.

ANOTHER TRUNK MYSTERY

Peculiarly Ghastly Murder Discovered in Albany, N. Y.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 24.—What appears to be a murder committed nearly two weeks ago and peculiarly ghastly in its details, was discovered here yesterday afternoon when the badly decomposed body of Mrs. John Hammond was found wedged in a trunk in a second-story room of her home. The trunk stood in the fireplace and the body within was heavily sprinkled with chloride of lime. The disinfectant was strewn thickly about the three rooms comprising the flat, and the cover of the trunk was propped open with the evident idea of having the odors of decomposition escape up the chimney.

John Hammond, the woman's husband, has not been seen for nearly two weeks. He is twenty-five years old, a cabinetmaker. The dead woman was fifty-seven years old.

BALFOUR'S FINISH

It Is Evident British Premier's Ministry Is Tentering to Its Fall.

INSPIRED SUGGESTION

It Is Significant That Leading Government Organs Are "Suggesting" Balfour's Immediate Resignation.

It Is Even Given Out That Premier Has Tendered His Resignation to the King.

London, Nov. 24.—Tremendous activity has developed in political circles consequent on the circulation of a well-founded report that Premier Balfour had decided to bring his ministry to a close and to directly or indirectly appeal to the country. Rumors regarding the resignation of the cabinet and the dissolution of parliament have been thick for three months past, but when two of the leading government organs, almost in the same terms, "suggested" the immediate resignation of the premier on account of the unendurable breach in the Unionist party over the fiscal question, the "suggestion" was looked upon as having been inspired by Mr. Balfour himself. This was strengthened by the knowledge that prior to the publication of the editorials, Mr. Balfour met certain influential persons at his official residence in Downing street.

These two facts when coupled led to the belief that the premier had intimated at the conference his intention to resign, and as he had just returned from a visit to King Edward at Windsor Castle, it was believed that his majesty had been informed of Mr. Balfour's intentions. Beyond this, however, there is not the slightest official confirmation of the report.

All political interest now centers in the cabinet meeting being held today, at which it is understood the situation will be discussed. Some well-informed persons go so far as to say that Mr. Balfour will go from the meeting to King Edward with the resignation of himself and the other members of the cabinet.

Conservative and Unionist papers are in favor of the resignation of the cabinet, which will place the Liberals on the defensive in case Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman consents to form a cabinet, but the Radicals say that the resignation will only mean dissolution, as Sir Henry, if requested to form a ministry, would certainly decline to do so until the verdict of the people became known. The Liberal papers point out that while Mr. Balfour may attempt this "technical move," they are confident it will fail on every side and that therefore the dissolution of parliament is believed to be imminent. There is no thought, however, that a political campaign will be forced prior to the beginning of the year with the elections somewhere about the end of January.

DEAL WAS CONSUMMATED

Judge Holds That Burton Was in Rialto Company's Employ.

St. Louis, Nov. 24.—In a lengthy extempore opinion, United States Circuit Judge Willis Vandeventer overruled a motion to dismiss all the counts in the indictment against U. S. Senator J. Ralph Burton, charged with having agreed to accept, and having accepted compensation, to act as an attorney for the Rialto Grain and Securities company before the postoffice department at Washington, which was filed by the defense immediately following the close of the government's case. Judge Vandeventer said that the definition of the word "agreement" bore pertinently upon this contention, and went deeply into both the legal and commercial meaning of the word.

He held that the agreement was not consummated until the representative of the Rialto company, who had conducted the negotiations with Senator Burton on the train en route from St. Louis to Chicago, had returned to St. Louis and Senator Burton's proposition had been accepted by the Rialto company. Attorney Lehmann had held that the mere agreeing by Senator Burton to accept compensation was all that the defendant was accountable for and that that had occurred in Illinois. Judge Vandeventer then denied the motion and allowed an exception to the decision.

Couldn't Resist Temptation.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 24.—George Edward Adams, for seven years cashier of the United States assay office in this city, is under arrest, accused by secret service officials of the theft of $35,000 in gold dust to which he had access in his official capacity. Of this sum $12,000 was taken from Adams's person. Secret Service Agent Connell, who has been at work on the case for several weeks, claims that Adams has made a practically complete confession.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 24.—Robbers broke into the local Japanese bank and took cash amounting to $15,000.

THE ALLIES SAIL

Turkish Government Is Now Directly Up Against It.

Athens, Nov. 24.—It is understood that the international fleet will sail today.

Vienna, Nov. 24.—Baron Von Calice, the Austro-Hungarian ambassador at Constantinople, has telegraphed Admiral Ritter Von Jedine for a portion of the international fleet to sail immediately, proceeding either to Mytilene (an island of the Grecian archipelago belonging to Turkey, in Asia) or for Besika bay (near the entrance of the Dardanelles).

London, Nov. 24.—The persistent refusal of the Turkish government to accept European control of the revenues of the vilayets of Macedonia, notwithstanding the ultimatum presented by the allied powers, is about to lead to the putting into operation of the threat of a naval demonstration with the view of compelling the acquiescence of Turkey in the European control of the administration of the proposed reforms in Macedonia.

The obduracy of the sultan apparently is based on the belief that he had passive support of the emperor of Germany and upon the jealousies supposed to exist among the powers interested.

In diplomatic quarters it had been supposed to the very last that the sultan would yield, and even now it is expected that he will do so before the international fleet takes active measures.

The powers are said to have agreed, as the first part of their procedure, on the seizure of the harbors and custom houses of the island of Mytilene, the island of Limnos, in the northern part of the Aegean sea, and the island of Tenedos, on the west coast of Asia Minor.

Anxious Father's Rapid Journey.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—The special Lake Shore train bringing Marshall Field to this city from New York reached Chicago at 5:30 last evening, and Mr. Field was driven at once to his home. The running time of the train for the trip was forty minutes faster than the Twentieth Century Limited. The condition of Marshall Field, Jr., who was shot by the accidental discharge of a pistol, is reported by his physicians as being a "shade better," although it is admitted that no confident prediction of the outcome can be made inside of another twenty-four hours.

Grangers Go on Record.

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 24.—Before adjourning sine die last evening, the National Grange Patrons of Husbandry, adopted a resolution declaring "that we, as American citizens, believe it is every man's privilege to work as many hours as he will for pay and that energy, thrift and activity are entitled to encouragement and should command rightful compensation for services rendered." This is taken as a direct aim at labor unions, which fix on eight hours for a working day, and may mean a contest between the farmers and organized labor.

GIVEN HIS CHANCE

Mr. Manning Has an Opportunity to Tell All He Knows.

INTERESTING WITNESS

Depew's "Rantankerous Friend Up the River" Appears Before the Insurance Inquirers.

He Gives Details as to How He Was to Betried Insurance Before Legislature.

New York, Nov. 24.—It was late in the afternoon yesterday when Mr. Hughes, counsel of the legislative insurance investigating committee, called to the witness chair William S. Manning of Albany, referred to in letters addressed by John A. Nichols to Senator C. M. Depew at a previous session as the "rantankerous friend up the river."

Mr. Manning was the most interesting witness of the day and was questioned closely by Mr. Hughes as to his connection with life insurance. He detailed his work for various companies for many years, and came gradually to the time when he took up insurance work in Albany and, as he testified, was paid $150 a year by John A. Nichols "to protect life insurance interests, always in the interest of the business, but not in the interest of the officers."

After several years, he said, this amount was reduced to $300. He did not know where Mr. Nichols was getting the money, and had never inquired. He denied that he had ever received money from the Equitable Life Assurance society. When his fee was reduced, however, he understood that the Equitable, the Mutual Life and the New York Life had each paid $150, and that the reduction was due to the fact that the New York Life had dropped out of the agreement.

An interesting part of the testimony was reached when Mr. Hughes inquired concerning the state insurance investigation of 1877. Manning said he acted as an expert there and found that the reports of the proceedings were "garbled and untrue." He testified that he secured a corrected report of the proceedings from the official stenographer and had a volume printed, the alleged garbled parts being printed in italics. This report was sold to some insurance companies for $50 a copy. The volume was copyrighted, but Mr. Manning declined to admit that this copyright was secured to prevent the publication of testimony contained in the work. He denied also that he had ever made arrangements with insurance companies to stop the publication of his book. "I just gave it up," he said, when Mr. Hughes inquired.

A GENERAL BALLOT

Russian Zemstvos Held This as a Prime Consideration.

Moscow, Nov. 24.—By a scant majority of twenty, the zemstvo congress accepted the first section of the resolution drafted by the executive committee declaring the solidarity of the congress with the principles of the imperial manifesto of Oct. 30 and assuring the government of the support of the great majority of zemstvos and municipalities in carrying into effect the liberties promised by the manifesto, but laying down as the sole means of guaranteeing the authority of the duma and restoring order in the country the election of representatives by a general, direct, equal and secret ballot and the formal grant to the first duma of the power to elaborate a constitution for the empire.

The friends of Count Witte on the floor made a stout fight against the provision for a direct ballot, the one concession which the premier considers it impossible to grant, but this provision was carried over their heads by a two-thirds majority.

Conditions at Vladivostok.

Vladivostok, Nov. 24.—There have been no further disturbances here and order has been completely restored. Ships are arriving daily and their cargoes are piled high on the docks. There is great activity in the port. The warehouses have been burned and nearly all the hotels have suffered from the torch. The few remaining hotels and the private houses are crowded with hundreds of business men who have poured into Vladivostok since the declaration of peace.

Drastic Order Issued.

Warsaw, Nov. 24.—Governor General Skallon has sent a confidential circular to the temporary military governors recently appointed in the ten Polish provinces, ordering them to consider agitators and rioters as insurgents and to shoot them down until they are all exterminated, and also to disperse public meetings by the use of firearms.

New York, Nov. 24.—Two sentences for illegal voting were passed by the supreme court. Thomas Halle, who confessed that he voted illegally under the name of Thomas Hall, received an indeterminate sentence of not less than a year and ten months. The same sentence was meted out to Thos. D. Brennan, who pleaded guilty to voting on another man's name.

DAMNING EVIDENCE

Standard Oil Methods on the Rack at St. Louis Hearing.

St. Louis, Nov. 24.—William A. Morgan, former manager of the Standard Oil company at Sedalia, Mo., testified in the ouster proceedings brought against the Standard, Waters-Pierce and Republic Oil companies, that the Standard Oil company issued orders to its agents to undersell competitors at all hazards. He asserted that upon one occasion he was supplied with false gauges to be used in the attempt to "drive the enemy from the field."

Morgan's testimony created a sensation, and the Standard Oil attorneys offered frequent and vigorous objections. Morgan testified that he went into the employ of the Standard Oil company Jan. 15, 1898, as a salesman. Soon afterward he was made a resident manager of the company with headquarters at Sedalia.

"When I took charge of the Sedalia office," said the witness, "the Standard Oil company controlled 50 or 60 per cent of the business in that territory. Inside of a short period I had taken the business away from competitors, and the Standard, before I severed my connection with it in 1901, controlled 90 per cent of the trade in the Sedalia territory. I was told to go into the field of our enemy and destroy our competitors. I was ordered to sell all goods possible—to cut prices wherever necessary. The Waters-Pierce company sold within eighteen miles of Sedalia, and I was not allowed to go into their territory."

Morgan was then asked to tell whether he knew of other methods resorted to by the Standard besides cutting prices to get business or kill off competition. He answered that the company furnished him with barrel gauges by which he would be able to show a customer that a competitor sold "short" barrels.

"I was told by Mr. Mayer to use the gauges only in extreme cases—that is, where a competitor could not be driven out by other methods or where other arguments failed to induce the merchant to buy from us," said Mr. Morgan.

"To what extent would these gauges indicate a barrel of oil was short when applied to a barrel sold by a competitor?"

"From four to five gallons." "Why did you refuse to carry out instructions sent you in regard to these gauges?"

"I had personal reasons." "What were they?" "Well, because I thought these gauges were being used with fraudulent intent. In the first place good salesmen could show by sharp manipulation that barrels were short."

Biliousness, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, disturbed sleep, nervousness, headache, giddiness and drowsiness, wind and pain or fullness of the stomach after meals, cold chills and flushings of heat, shortness of breath—these are the blank checks of physical bankruptcy.

The man who suffers from these disorders and neglects them will soon be in the relentless grasp of some fatal disease. If he is naturally narrow chested and shallow lunged, it will probably be consumption; if his father or mother died of paralysis or some nervous trouble, it will probably be nervous exhaustion or prostration, or even insanity; if there is a taint in the family blood, it will be blood or skin disease; if he lives in a new or a low, swampy country, it will be malaria; if he lives a life of exposure, it may be rheumatism. There is one safe course for a man to follow who finds himself "out of sorts" and suffering from the symptoms described. It is to resort to Dr. Price's Golden Medical Discovery. This medicine makes the appetite keen, corrects all disorders of the digestion, renders assimilation perfect, invigorates the liver, purifies and enriches the blood and builds firm, healthy flesh and nerve tissue. It cures almost all diseases that result from insufficient or improper nourishment of the brain and nerves. Bronchitis, throat, and even lung affections, when not too far advanced, readily yield to it.

A man or woman who neglects constipation suffers from slow poisoning. Dr. Price's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Don't let a selfish seller over-persuade you to accept a substitute for these Original Little Liver Pills, first put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated but never equaled.

Facing Starvation

Perhaps you find yourself in a position where you have given up all hope of ever enjoying a hearty meal without having to pay a penalty.

But don't give up hope. Read what one of many thousands of sufferers has given testimony to:

"I want everyone to know how Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets helped me. I suffered with stomach trouble for two years, and was in a terrible condition. I had lost thirty pounds in weight and looked twenty years older than I am. I was half starved, for nothing that I ate seemed to give me strength. A friend told me of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, and after taking three boxes, I believe I am cured. I can eat anything without the least discomfort; my complexion has become clear and I am rapidly gaining flesh.—Mrs. M. J. SEVANSO, Minneapolis, Minn."

If you are losing flesh and becoming weak and irritable, if your food distresses you, or if you are unable to sleep, get a box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. The cost is trifling, twenty-five cents a box, and even that amount we will refund if you are not satisfied.

A REASON

Dyspepsia is due to a disordered state of the stomach. "Bile" collects in large quantities and the stomach while in this condition cannot perform its natural function. The body cannot extract nutriment from the undigested food and consequently no new blood is formed. Extreme weakness, emaciation and chronic suffering is the inevitable result.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets disperse the surplus "bile," soothe the disordered nerves and gradually restore the stomach to its normal health and strength.

Our name and reputation in this community is back of the statements made in this advertisement. We could not risk putting it here did we not know the formula of Rexall Dyspepsia Cure and the other 199 Rexall Remedies.

CITY COUNCIL

Proceedings of Meeting Last Night.

Mayor Graessle and all the councilmen were present at the regular meeting last night. After the usual preliminaries the following business was transacted.

Mills, chairman of the building committee, reported that since last council meeting Architect Royer had inspected the building as it is progressing and was well pleased with the work done. The architect made an estimate of the amount now due the contractor and suggested that $2000 be paid on contract.

At the suggestion of the mayor the fire committee was instructed to take up the matter of fire equipment to be installed in the new fire department building when completed and report to the council.

The city attorney reported that he had taken up the matter of cleaning the ditch in which the B. & O. S. W. is an interested party and had made progress but final arrangements are not yet complete.

The grade committee reported on drainage at Centennial and Bill streets and recommended that the street commissioner and engineer raise the depression in Bill street gutter and clean the tile at the intersection. Report approved.

The light committee to which was referred the matter of are lights petitioned for by interested citizens reported in favor of locating are lights as follows: One at the intersection of Ninth and Ewing, one at Pine and Seventh, one at Vine and Centennial and one at Beech and Jackson. Committee also recommended that the light at Brown and Poplar be moved 30 feet west on Brown. Report adopted.

FRIDAY NOV. 24, 1905.

THE report seems to have gained some circulation that D. Appleton & Co., the publishers of Senator Beveridge's new book, "The Young Man and the World," had received instructions from the Senator to advertise the book only in republican newspapers. The publishers are very emphatic in denying the report that any such suggestion has ever been made by Senator Beveridge. The book was recently advertised in the REPUBLICAN. It is one of the very best of books for the careful reading of every young man in Seymour. The book is on sale at our book stores and will well repay any man for the time necessary to read it.

THE wise shopper and economical buyer is a close reader of advertisements. They save both money and time by so doing. Therefore the good advertisers get the cream of the business.

It is now reported that John H. Underwood, the Bedford lawyer, has congressional aspirations and will seek to get the democratic nomination in the Second district. Ex-Congressman Meirs and Senator Cy Davis have similar ambitions.

It is evident that the railroads are not making the proper efforts to haul the coal from the mines to the consumer. The cry of a probable coal famine this winter is going up because the retail dealers are not able to get coal delivered promptly. The blame for this is placed on the railroads and it seems rightly so. They are treating the coal shippers and coal dealers with indifference. That means that they are treating the consumers of coal in the same way. It is no wonder that the people are demanding more stringent laws regulating railroad traffic. The railroads are themselves responsible. If the railroad managers are wise they will show more regard for the public welfare. Right now is a good time to reform.

ROYAL TONIC

Beats Anything We Ever Sold as a Strength-Creator and Body Builder.

The W. F. Peter Drug Co. are very enthusiastic over the delicious cod liver oil preparation, which contains no oil. In referring to the matter, said Mr. Peter of the above firm, "We sell many tonics, and we handle all kinds of remedies that claim to be invigorators and strength creators. We do this because we are druggists, and it is our business to supply the public with what they want."

When our advice is asked, however in regard to a tonic, body builder or strength creator, we invariably recommend Vinol, as we know of nothing that can compare with it.

In Vinol modern science has given us all of the tonic, bodybuilding and curative properties of that famous old remedy cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, without a drop of the obnoxious and system clogging grease which characterizes old fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions, and which has proved such a drawback.

Vinol is not a patent medicine, as the label on each bottle tells everything it contains, therefore you know exactly what you are taking.

In the most natural manner it tones up the digestive organs, creates a hearty appetite, makes rich, red blood, and strengthens every organ in the body to do its work as nature intended.

Our faith in Vinol is so strong that we gladly offer to refund the money in every case where it fails to give satisfaction." W. F. Peter Drug Co.

DIED.

DUNKLE.—Conductor George Dunkle died at his home in Cincinnati Thursday evening at 9:15. He had been sick for some time and was reported to be getting better even within the last two or three days. Though no detailed information has been received here yet it is suspected that heart failure was the immediate cause of his death. Conductor Dunkle was about sixty years of age and had been in the railroad service for about forty years. He was first employed on the E. & T. H. soon after he came out of the army. He then went with the O. & M. and then with the B. & O. S. W. He was in charge of a construction train many years but for the past several years he has been a passenger conductor. He was a splendid railroad man and had many friends all along the line. He was born and reared at Vincennes but his home was in Seymour for several years. He leaves a wife and two sons and two daughters. He was a brother-in-law of J. M. Hamer, of this city. Remains will be taken to Vincennes Saturday for burial.

WALLINGFORD.—Mrs. Anna Wallingford died at nine o'clock Thursday night at her home at Pleasant Grove. Early Thursday morning she had a stroke of paralysis and never regained consciousness before her death. She was about forty years of age and leaves a husband and two sons. She was a highly respected lady and an active worker in the Methodist Church. Funeral services were held at half past two today and burial at Pleasant Grove.

COX.—Mrs. Bertha Cox, wife of Oliver Cox, died Thursday morning at her home north of Austin. Burial at Whitson cemetery at 10:30 Friday morning.

SCOTT.—Thomas Scott, the sixteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scott, of Austin, died Thursday morning at 7 o'clock of typhoid fever. Burial was at Austin at half past two Friday afternoon.

Surprised on Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Grelle were surprised Thursday evening at their home on South Chestnut street by the members of the male choir of the German Lutheran church who gathered there to assist them to observe and make pleasant their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The affair was a complete surprise not only to Mr. and Mrs. Grelle, but to all members of the family. The evening was spent at music, the choir singing several very pretty selections. Refreshments were served and the evening as a whole proved very delightful.

Mrs. Conrad's Class.

Mrs. A. B. Conrad entertained about twenty of her Sunday School class Thursday evening at her home on west Second street. Refreshments were served and all present spent a delightful evening.

Eugene Ireland returned last night from a trip to Montgomery, Alabama, where he spent a few days with relatives. He was delighted with his trip and enjoyed every day of his stay in the south.

Cleared for Action.

When the body is cleared for action, by Dr. King's New Life Pills, you can tell it by the bloom of health on the cheeks; the brightness of the eyes; the firmness of the flesh and muscles; the buoyancy of the mind. Try them, At W. F. Peter Drug Co., 25 cents.

Jewelry Stolen.

Mrs. S. E. Anderson's jewelry store at Bedford was robbed of $500 worth of jewelry Wednesday night. The stolen goods consists of gold chains, lockers, necklaces, and other articles. Local officers have been notified to look out for the thieves.

TURKEYS

Loads of Them Being Put on The Market.

There has been some talk about a short turkey crop but if one has been about the poultry and produce houses here even for a short time during the past three weeks he probably has a different opinion. Farmer after farmer drives up and unloads nice fat turkeys by the dozen. Then the hucksters come in with their share every week.

So many turkeys have been sold in Seymour for the Thanksgiving market that the casual observer is led to believe that the supply is fully up to the average. It is said that some farmers are holding their turkeys for the Christmas market hoping that the price will be higher than now, but no one can tell about that.

If you have not engaged your Thanksgiving turkey it may not be amiss to begin making inquiry.

Appointed Organizer.

Fred C. Whitcomb, manager of the Seymour Home Telephone, has been notified by the secretary of the Independent Telephone Company that the local system has been transferred from the tenth to the eleventh district as designated by the telephone people. This district is now composed of Jackson, Bartholomew, Brown, Dearborn, Decatur, Jefferson, Jennings, Tipton, Ohio and Switzerland counties. Mr. Whitcomb has also been appointed district organizer which is quite an honor. He has assurance that the next district meeting of telephone men will be held in Seymour. The purpose of the organization is for the betterment of the service and for closer cooperation in serving telephone patrons.

Saved by Dynamite

Sometimes a flaming city is saved by dynamiting space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and La Grippe. At W. F. Peter Drug Co. store, price 50 cents and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

If you are troubled with dizzy spells, headache, indigestion, constipation, Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well and keep you well. If it fails, get your money back. That's fair. 35 cents. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

A Shortage of Freight Cars

May soon make it extremely difficult, if not absolutely impossible, for railway companies to get coal from the mines to the cities and towns through out the country. Coal mining companies already are clamoring for more freight cars, which it is impossible to produce.

Unless coal can be shipped from the mines there will surely be a coal famine this winter.

If you have laid in your winter's supply of coal you have no cause to worry. If you have not done so, give us your orders at once else you may be too late.

Our supply of Raymond City Soft Coal is not yet exhausted, and we are still selling it for only $8.75 per ton. If you want enough of this high grade coal to last you until next spring place your orders immediately.

Women in Our Hospitals

Appalling Increase in the Number of Operations Performed Each Year—How Women May Avoid Them.

Going through the hospitals in our large cities one is surprised to find such a large proportion of the patients lying on those snowy-white beds women and girls, who are either awaiting or recovering from serious operations.

Why should this be the case? Simply because they have neglected themselves. Ovarian and womb troubles are certainly on the increase among the women of this country—they creep upon them unawares, but every one of those patients in the hospital beds had plenty of warning in that bearing-down feeling, pain at left or right of the womb, nervous exhaustion, pain in the small of the back, leucorrhoea, dizziness, flatulency, displacements of the womb or irregularities. All of these symptoms are indications of an unhealthy condition of the ovaries or womb, and if not heeded the penalty has to be paid by a dangerous operation.

When these symptoms manifest themselves, do not drag along until you are obliged to go to the hospital and submit to an operation—but remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved thousands of women from surgical operations.

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating (or flatulency), general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine, for you need the best.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice and medicine have restored thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail.

ness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy.

The following letters cannot fail to bring hope to despairing women.

Mrs. Fred Seydel, 412 N. 54th Street, West Philadelphia, Pa., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"I was in a very serious condition when I wrote to you for advice. I had a serious womb and ovarian trouble and I could not carry a child to maturity, and was advised that an operation was my only hope of recovery. I could not bear to think of going to the hospital, so wrote you for advice. I did as you instructed me and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am not only a well woman today, but have a beautiful baby girl six months old. I advise all sick and suffering women to write you for advice, as you have done so much for me."

Miss Ruby Mushrush, of East Chicago, Ind., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"I have been a great sufferer with irregular menstruation and ovarian trouble, and about three months ago the doctor, after using the X-Ray on me, said I had an abscess on the ovaries and would have to have an operation. My mother wanted me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a last resort, and it not only saved me from an operation but made me entirely well."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine, for you need the best.

CATARRH THE PLAGUE OF WINTER

Every Catarrh sufferer dreads the return of cold weather, for at the first cold breath of the season this plague of winter is fanned into life with all its miserable symptoms. The nostrils are stopped up, and a constant dripping of mucus back into the throat keeps up a continual hawking and spitting, the patient has dull headaches, ringing noises in the ears and a half sick, depressed feeling all the time. Every inner lining and tissue of the body becomes inflamed, and secretes an unhealthy matter which is absorbed into the blood and distributed to all parts of the body, and the disease becomes constitutional. The catarrhal poison brings on stomach troubles, affects the kidneys and bladder, attacks the soft bones of the throat and head and if not checked leads to Consumption. A disease so deep-seated and dangerous cannot be washed out, neither can it be smoked away. Sprays, washes, inhalations, etc., are useless, because they only reach the membranes and tissues, while the real cause of the disease is in the blood. S. S. S. cures Catarrh because it attacks it through the blood; it goes into the circulation and drives out all unhealthy accumulations and catarrhal matter, and when this is done every part of the system receives a supply of rich, pure blood. Then the inflamed membranes and tissues heal, all discharge ceases, the depressed feeling of the body is relieved, and every symptom passes away. S. S. S. goes to the very root of the trouble, and by purifying and enriching the blood and building up the entire system, cures Catarrh permanently. If you have Catarrh do not waste time with local remedies, but begin S. S. S. and write for our book and any medical advice without charge.

Two Indianapolis Teachers Arranging for an Interesting and Attractive Midwinter Outing From

DECEMBER 22 TO JANUARY 2, INCLUSIVE

Before the Spanish-American War, Cuba was no better known to the average American than any other of the many islands adjacent to the continent, but today this island, with its chief city, Havana, is attracting more attention than all the others combined. Pursuant of many requests, which come to Messrs. Hall & Forsyth, of the Indianapolis High Schools, by persons who had accompanied them on other trips, for an excursion to Cuba, they visited the island in June, and now have every detail arranged for what promises to be the most attractive outing of the season.

The party will leave Indianapolis, Indiana, via the Pennsylvania Lines to Louisville, Ky., thence via the Louisville and Nashville Railway to Mobile, Ala., where they will board the Manson Line Steamship, "Prince George" for Havana, covering an itinerary of over three thousand miles in twelve days; two of which will be consumed in the trip on rail, over the beautiful country between Indianapolis to Mobile, and return; four on the ocean and six on the island of Cuba. The ticket will cost seventy-five dollars, and will cover every expense except meals while in Havana.

A beautiful booklet, containing one hundred and twenty-five pages of information and descriptive matter, is now ready for distribution.

Climatic Cures.

The influence of climatic condition in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. LAYING DOWN LAW

State Railway Commission Throws Out a Hint About Coal.

ROADS MUST GET BUSY

Unreasonable Delay or Discrimination in Moving Coal Will Be Held as an Offense and So Treated.

If the Roads Do Not Soon Come to Terms the Commission May Take a Hand.

Indianapolis, Nov. 24.—Coal operators and dealers are dubious as to the outcome of the efforts of the railway commission to induce the railroads to move coal more quickly. In a letter to the roads the commission says: "The commission has knowledge that heretofore terminal and junction points have been congested with loaded coal cars, which connecting roads refused to handle, resulting in hardship to the mine operators and consumers. The late legislation was intended to correct this evil, and it is now the plain duty of all the railroads in this state to receive and transport without unreasonable delay or discrimination, the passengers, tonnage and cars, loaded or empty, of any connecting line, and the failure to do so subjects the carrier to the charge of unjust discrimination. If the connecting carriers cannot agree on a joint rate or the division therefor, the commission has the authority to determine such matters."

WRECKED IN A FOG

Five Trainmen Killed in a Smashup on the B. & O.

Garrett, Ind., Nov. 24.—A work train and a gravel train came together one mile from Albion, owing to a dense fog. It was a head-on collision.

Engineer Odenskirk of the work train was instantly killed and Engineer Strouse of the gravel train was fatally injured. He was removed to the hospital in this city in a dying condition.

Fireman Bite of Avilla was killed, and the fireman on the work train also met with death. Two laborers were also killed. Odenskirk's head was mashed. Both engines were badly broken, and a number of cars were derailed and broken.

Neighbors Rejoice.

Frankfort, Ind., Nov. 24.—The jury in the case of the state against Erasmus, better known as "Sankey" Bennett, who was charged with assault and battery on James Potter, with intent to commit murder, returned a verdict finding the defendant guilty of assault and battery with intent to commit manslaughter, the verdict carrying with it a term in the penitentiary under the indeterminate sentence act. The defendant smiled as the clerk of the court read the finding. There is general rejoicing in the neighborhood where Bennett lived over the finding of the jury. For the last ten years Bennett has been a terror in the community, and so much was he feared by the citizens that many of them refused to appear and testify against him upon former occasions. He was called "the Wild Cat Outlaw," and ran things to suit himself.

Grand Lodge Needs More Room.

Indianapolis, Nov. 24.—The next annual meeting of the Indiana grand lodge, I. O. O. F., will be held in Tomlinson hall. This was decided upon at the meeting when the question of larger quarters was up for discussion. A committee was appointed to act in conjunction with the trustees, to consider the advisability of obtaining permanent quarters farther out from the business center. This committee will report later. It may recommend the erection of a new building, at the same time retaining the present one for rental purposes.

Hazing Students Dismissed.

Culver, Ind., Nov. 24.—The Culver military academy is the scene of the latest hazing scandal. Eleven boys have been dismissed from that institution as a result of the exposure of a hazing administered last Sunday to Cadets Fee and Harris of Jefferson City, Mo., one of whom was rendered unconscious by electrocution and the other seriously pummeled. Captain Buckingham was reduced to a private for complicity in the affair.

Jury's Short Work.

Crown Point, Ind., Nov. 24.—It took a jury less than ten minutes to find William Hunt guilty of attempting to assault Miss Lillie Meyers, a well-known school teacher, as she closed her school for the day at a point near this city and started for her home, the jury recommending maximum punishment under the indeterminate sentence act. Hunt narrowly missed mob violence at the time of his arrest.

Hartford City, Ind., Nov. 24.—The announcement that the American Window Glass company is to close its immense factory here, employing 600 men, Saturday, Nov. 25, comes as a surprise. It will mean a cheerless Christmas for a large number of the workmen who have been employed there for several years without a vacation.
